Control: Exposing The Truth About Guns

Synopsis

When our founding fathers secured the Constitutional "right of the people to keep and bear arms", they also added the admonition that this right shall not be infringed. It is the only time this phrase appears in the Bill of Rights. So why aren't more people listening? History has proven that guns are essential to self-defense and liberty - but tragedy is a powerful force and has led many to believe that guns are the enemy, that the Second Amendment is outdated, and that more restrictions or outright bans on firearms will somehow solve everything. They are wrong. In Control, Glenn Beck presents a passionate, fact-based case for guns that reveals why gun control isn't really about controlling guns at all; it's about controlling us. In doing so, he takes on and debunks the common myths and outright lies that are often used to vilify guns and demean their owners: The Second Amendment is about muskets....Gun control works in other countries....Forty percent of all guns are sold without background checks....More guns mean more murder....Mass shootings are becoming more common....These awful massacres are unique to America....No civilian needs a "weapon of war" like the AR-15....Armed guards in schools do nothing, just look at Columbine....Stop fearmongering, no one is talking about taking your guns away. Backed by hundreds of sources, this handbook gives everyone who cares about the Second Amendment the indisputable facts they need to reclaim the debate, defeat the fear, and take back their natural rights.

This is an important and critical book for all citizens who believe in freedom and the US Constitution whether or not they own firearms. "CONTROL" clearly lays out the positive case for firearms ownership and the reasons that more legislation is unnecessary and would be ineffective for its stated purpose of preventing gun violence. The most important message in the book is that gun control is about the control and harassment of law abiding citizens while ignoring or excusing the actions and attitudes of law breakers. It is designed to intimidate us into a false choice of surrendering our liberty for the illusion of safety. Politicians are trying to lull law abiding citizens into supporting background checks and a national database...nothing for a law abiding citizen to fear...really? Before you agree to this bait and switch here are some questions to consider regarding background checks and databases: 1. What information goes in to the database? 2. What happens if the info is inaccurate? 3. How do you clear your name? 4. How do you know what information is being kept in your record or that you even have a record? I have some real life answers to those questions based on existing California gun laws. A friend, who was hospitalized over 10 years ago for depression and suicidal thoughts, tried to purchase a firearm two years ago. As a law abiding citizen with no record, he was surprised that the purchase was denied. Turns out that a clerk mis-coded his hospital record. The incorrect code came with a lifetime ban on gun ownership. He was completely oblivious to this because there was no adjudication and no notification to him at the time the record was created.
