Customer Reviews

Great words, and love that the words are phonetically written on the other side..Since I homeschool my 3rd grade son, I go through several words every week, and show him the definitions..He reads the sentence, and we discuss it...These have been a very helpful asset to our schooling..

The cards would be great if they were not so thin and flimsy. The actual content is fine but they are not going to hold up to use by children.

I used these on my 8 year old to get her ready for 3rd grade and they did the charm.

These flash cards really are helpful. words on one side, other side has the pronunciation. Also uses word in sentence. Quality texture of cards. Also includes a divider.

This has been very useful in tutoring an ESL student for her third grade vocabulary star test.

I bought the 3rd, 4th and 5th grade sets of these for my daughter to expand her vocabulary. I like them, except I wish the definitions were on the opposite side of the card than the word, to make them better flashcards for tests. I have to create a test myself, manually, which would be eliminated by this simple reconstruction.

This is a great learning tool for my ESL tutee. He is precocious and these flashcards will help him learn/understand words. My tutee is in kindergarten; however, he reads first and second grade books. Expanding his vocabulary will help him enhance his educational pursuits as he works on his disability. During his delivery, this ten pound baby was pulled out, injuring his right arm. He is somewhat limited in his activities due to this birth injury; however, physical therapy and home exercises are strengthening his right arm and hand. Diego loves flashcards, especially when he can wisk out the words. I believe he will do well with these flashcards. When I started tutoring Diego when he was three years old, I told him how I expected him to be a good person and go to college. He asked how. I told him to be nice to people, helpful when he can, respect his parents, and to study. He asked how to get to college. I wrote out a pyramid on a piece of lined paper beginning with kindergarten on the bottom, then elementary and middle school, high school, and college. His mother told me that she was cleaning up his room recently and she put the paper in the trash. When Diego saw that his older brother had the paper to be placed in the recycle bin, he insisted that he regain/retain the little pyramid that I had sketched. When his mother told me this, I was so touched. I believe this child has fire in his belly for learning.

I bought this product to help my third grade son study for the FCAT, and it was a great help.
